

Signature Page Instructions

The signature page, which is not numbered or counted, must be included as the first page of the printed dissertation when you submit it to The Graduate School. The adviser (and co-adviser if applicable) must sign the signature page to confirm that s/he has seen and approved the final version of the dissertation. The signature page is available in three formats:

- Printed copy: A specially designed signature page, with a sketch of Northrop Auditorium in the background, is available in 316 Johnston Hall or can be mailed out upon request (612.625.0168; gsdoc@umn.edu). Please note, this is a paper copy.
- Online, one advisor
- Online, two advisors
